Dear Brother and Friends:

Thanks for all the kindness you've shown to me and the Foundation.

I apologize for not responding much sooner, however, as you know or imagine, I am still struggling to keep Brother Malcolm's memory alive. I set for myself we are doing quite well.

Oh, yes, I am still working on my book and I appreciate your offer... And I will probably be able to get something to you before too long. ...But the Foundation takes all of my time.

I'm proud to be a "young" lady and as Langston Hughes said, "I's still a strugglin' honey, turning corners, reaching landings and traveling in the dark where there ain't been no light. Life for me ain't been no crystal stair, but I's still a climbin'...I's still a climbin'..."

I hope this letter will be my commitment to you that I am sincere about my book.
